- I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.
- I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

p 37 I am concerned at the reduction (from $4.115 million to $3.677 million) in Community Support for individuals and groups and also the reduction (from $4.785m to $4.213m) for grants for Community Projects and Activities.

+ p 42 My work with Volunteering Canterbury and particularly with Network Waitangi Otautahi shows the need for CCC to increase its supports in these areas if we are to hold on to the vision CCC and the voluntary sector have in common.

p 11 Please refer to Adult & Community Education
 - This is the professional name for our field p 12 Please indicate how the plan enacts "Strengthens treaty relationships" - I cannot find any details about how our organisation (NWO) can collaborate with CCC on this

We have been active as a voluntary organisation working on the basis of koha (not a consultancy charging fees) in working for a society based on Te Tiriti o Waitangi particularly in relation to sustainable development and Pakeha responsibility since 1984. We would love to be part of a collaborative approach with the CCC to "strengthen treaty relationships"
