I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005. ~~DO NOT CUT FUNDS: INCREASE THE FUNDS~~ FOR COMMUNITY CENTRES.

(1) Community centres service individuals and groups (ie SOCIETY) and, therefore, logically, ought to be properly fund by society (in other words, the community).

(2) The best avenue to fund community centres is via the local government [i.e. the C.C.C.]

(3) In general, all manner of groups from dancing to arts to elderly use the venues, but as do walking groups and church groups

(4) In particular, the alienated, such as mental health groups, and the person in poverty (i.e. the beneficiary on welfare or worker in a lowly-paid job) can
