I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

I visit the St. Albans Community Resource Centre two or three times every week, often to use the photocopier.
Having lived in St. Albans for much of my life I firmly believe that the Centre is a most important part of this locality.
The people who run the Centre have always been cheerful & most efficient. Moreover, members of the public, I've never failed to notice, thoroughly enjoy the various group activities that are conducted there - including the 'happy morning tea' sessions.
I earnestly believe that the St. Albans Community Resource Centre is a most essential part of this 'lively' suburb, It would be a dreadful set-back to Residents of St. Albans, in particular, if it ceases to be so well-run by such excellent people.
