The view of the Council to place the St Albans Community Resource Centre in jeopardy with regards to funding is to me, ludicrous. The suggestion that the facility & others like it should be run by volunteers from within a community organisation is also in the same vein. Many hours are then spent by qualified paid workers training volunteers who seldom commit for any length of time.

This facility offers so much to so many from within the St Albans community & beyond. It is a great place to visit, participate in all manner of groups & functions & to socialise with others using the facility.

It was not until I participated in a Pilates Course at the Centre that I realised what a busy, well utilised & well run facility this is.
