- I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

If the Council is really concerned about the community and the city residents it works for, it will continue to pay for facilities such as ~~the~~ ^{the Strathmore Community Resource Centre} They offer people the chance to offer help and activities to others at prices they can afford, which is something businesses, with high overheads, cannot do. In other words what community centres do, combining waged workers with volunteers is value for money. It is something unique and it should be valued. If anything the council should consider increasing funding, not decreasing it
