- I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.
- I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

- ① I am in favour of undergrounding wiring at the same time as any work to modify existing planting along Hamilton Ave
- ② I believe undergrounding of wiring should be the greater priority
- ③ The cost of undergrounding wiring should be borne by the Council (via rates levy)
and electrical company(ies).
- ④ There should not be an additional charge to local ratepayers for this work.

⑤ Existing planting of trees should be continued along the northern side of Hamilton Ave up to Ilam Rd, in order to complete tree & grass verge planting.

⑥ The first choice of planting should be Plane trees with liquidamber reserved as highlights at intersections along Hamilton Ave.

⑦ That existing grass kerbs be tidied along the length of Hamilton Ave in association with undergrounding of wiring.

⑧ That existing Plane trees be retained.
