I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

① As part of your draft plan for the coming year would you consider the replacement of old gutters in the Beckenham Loop area. In particular Birdwood, Martin, Malcolm & Corson avenues & Sandwich Rd & Riverview St.

The areas already completed of Wainea & Eastern Terraces, Fisher Ave, Lemysom & Rowwood streets look exceptionally good & have improved the appearance & updated the area of Beckenham enormously. It has also helped with the overflow of water from fallen leaves in heavy rain.

I understand there is no mention in the strategic plan at the moment for streets in this area.

② Birdwood Ave I believe could be improved by the addition of trees (nothing too big) to enhance & soften the street planted at strategic spots without encroaching on individuals space or sunshine.

I hope the council will give due consideration to these suggestions submitted with the enhancement & improvement of a very good suburb in mind.
