I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 7 June and Friday 10 June 2005.

The expenditure on underground wiring is of a capital asset nature and is not the residents responsibility as they cannot own a share of the asset.

If the residents agree to meeting part of the cost the next step would be a request to meet part of other capital expenditure,
