*It is clear that upgrading Hamilton Avenue is urgent and that it would be crazy not to do the undergrounding of services while the road, gutters and footpaths are being dug up.

*We believe that the Council, in view of this reality, is forcing the residents to make an unrealistic contribution.

*Should a contribution have to be paid, a lesser amount would be accepted by more residents. If a contribution of some thousands is required, many would be unable or unwilling to pay this.

*Many in the street are elderly people who will not have a great deal of benefit from the improvements.

*It would be most regrettable if the work was to be delayed because the Council expects such a large contribution. Obviously any delay would cause costs to escalate.

* If there is a delay from the time of payment until the work starts, any interest on payments should be used towards the cost of the work.

Robin and Marian Young, 139 Hamilton Avenue
