Dear Sir/ Madam

Re: Extension of the Tram Route

I write to confirm my full support of the proposal to extend the tram route via City Mall and Oxford Terrace.

The proposed extension will bring more tourists & customers into the City Mall and Oxford Terrace area, not only that, the tram will also provide an extra factor of attraction which that draw tourists/ customers to the business areas surrounding the tram route. This is very encouraging for business and is a pro-active step by Council in the right direction.

The Benjamin T Gough Family Trust No 2 is the owner of the property situated at 152 Oxford Terrace (former Public Trust Building). The property is currently being refurbished and upon completion the ground floor of the building will be converted to Café & Restaurants. The tram extension will bring additional tourists and customers past 152 Oxford Terrace, thereby assisting the proposed ground floor café/ restaurant owners.

I also support the inclusion of additional cost in the draft 2008/2009 Annual Plan for tram rails in the current development of City Mall. By completing this work now, the chance of future disruption and delays to business owners/ retailers will be reduced.

I do not wish to discuss my submission at the hearing, however I ask that this written submission be considered.

Yours faithfully

For Benjamin T Gough Family Trust No 2
