1/ WIG20012152 Shands Road Industrial Park Limited 255 Shands Road Wigram Ward

The first stage of this industrial subdivision creates two allotments, and a new legal road. Subsequent stages will create further allotments and will also extend the road. The applicant company wish to recognise the achievements of Sir James Wattie, and are proposing that the new road be named Sir James Wattie Drive. Approval to the use of his name has been obtained from Sir James Wattie. The name does not conflict with any existing names, and it's location and the length of the new road should present no difficulty for cartographers.

Recommendation : That the Board approve the name Sir James Wattie Drive for this new road.
