The purpose of this report is to advise the Board of applications for funding considered under its policy of “exceptional circumstances” eg “.....where the matter is so very minor that it would be unreasonable for it to be considered by the Board”.

The Board’s Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson and Community Advocate met on 3 June 2003 to consider the following:-

Waltham Community Cottage

The sum of $250 was approved to offset costs associated with a family dance to be held at the Waltham Primary School’s hall which will also assist in maximising the amount raised for the children’s playroom project. A copy of letter the of application has been circulated to members.

Strickland Street Community Gardens

The sum of $200 was approved for the purchase of a portable drill to assist with the construction of garden furniture and general building and maintenance work. A copy of the application has been circulated to members.
