

7. GENERATIONS IN THE PARK

The Community Secretary reported on a project that had arisen from a meeting of the generations forum called by the Mayor in May, that was investigating ways to foster dialogue between different age groups. Councillors Carole Evans and Sally Thompson had been tasked with forming a team to plan an event “Generations in the Park”. The Board decided that Myra Barry be its representative on this team.