

6. ADDINGTON PRISON

RR 9509

The Committee has taken the initiative by commencing a process to examine the future use of the Addington Prison site and buildings, prior to their disposal by the Crown. The process will involve:

- (i) An investigation of the early ownership details of the prison site
- (ii) Discussions with the Ngai Tahu Trust, to whom the land is likely to be offered
- (iii) Consultation with the Addington community who have expressed an interest in the property

It was resolved that the process of ownership investigation, consultation with affected parties and the community be commenced by the Committee's Heritage Sub-committee, comprising Councillors Crighton, Corbett, Evans and Harrow.
