

11. SPREYDON LIBRARY CONSULTATION

The Board was advised that following a presentation to the Community Services Committee, options have been further developed and it was decided that consultation would take place on these newly defined options.

The Board decided that a meeting be held on 22 September 1999, on-site at the Spreydon Library initially, returning to the Beckenham Service Centre, to consider and discuss the options.