

7. WATERLINK PROGRAMME

The Water Services Unit reported on this programme, for young people to learn about, and participate in, the sustainable management of the water resource.

The report identified the participation of various schools in restoration projects. Most of the participating schools were in the very early stages of involving students in the planning processes, prior to site assessment, consultation, and plan implementation and maintenance.

The Board received the information.