

17. GOOD NEWS STORIES

Inspector Dave Lawry from the Papanui Police extended his thanks to the Council for making space available in the new Fendalton office to accommodate two community constables and support staff. He indicated that he was soon to be transferring to the Hagley/Ferrymead area and passed on his best wishes to the Board.

Members thanked Ron Wright for his role in the official opening ceremony for the new Christchurch City Council Fendalton building.

Officers undertook to forward congratulatory letters to local recipients of Queens Birthday honours.