

12. ZIGGURAT 2000

The Parks Manager reported, seeking approval for a proposal to install the art work “Ziggurat 2000” in North Hagley Park near the Carlton Mill corner, for three months as part of Art and Industry 2000. Art and Industry 2000 is a biennial festival of contemporary visual art that will run between 23 September and 31 December 2000.

The work is a large one, covering an area of 11m² and reaching a height of 5 metres. It is constructed of large, local Waimakariri River stones encased in galvanised wire gabion baskets.

The structure will require approval by the Art in Public Places Committee and a resource consent.

The Committee decided to support the installation of Ziggurat 2000 in North Hagley Park near Carlton Mil corner, subject to:

- (a) The approval of the Art in Public Places Subcommittee; and
- (b) A resource consent being obtained.
