

15. CYCLE LANE RESEARCH

The Committee was advised of research into the effectiveness of painted cycle lanes in the city. Overall the results of the research are very encouraging for the expansion of the cycle lane network. The Committee has requested that in future traffic safety promotion programmes it be emphasised that motorists should avoid encroaching on to the marked cycle lanes and that cyclists be encouraged to use the provided cycle lanes.