

8. MIGRATION TRENDS

The Committee considered a report on the latest trends in permanent and long-term external migration, both in Christchurch and in New Zealand. The Committee noted that the social and demographic data provided was useful in interpreting change occurring within the city. Data of this type was requested as it became available.