

8. UPDATE ON HEALTH REFORMS

The Committee considered a report from Mary Richardson, Senior Policy Analyst, advising the Committee of recent changes in the health system, including the enactment of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act, the adoption of the National Health Strategy and the establishment of District Health Boards and various health advisory committees. The Council made a series of submissions to the Government regarding these during 2000.

The information was received.