

8. NEW ZEALAND PROPERTY INSTITUTE - INAUGURAL PROPERTY INNOVATION AWARD

A report from Peter Wills advised that two Council property asset planners, Rob Hawthorne and Callum Logan were presented with the inaugural property innovation award for the Council's asset management plan for the quality of planning and management for the social housing portfolio. The award was won for the extent of lifecycle analysis undertaken and the integration of macro and micro economic tools into a decision making mechanism.

The Committee received the information and offered Rob Hawthorne and Callum Logan its sincere congratulations.
