

3. KNOWLEDGE WAVE CONFERENCE

I was privileged to attend the Knowledge Wave Conference in Auckland last week and feel that as a city we are 'on the button' on where we are headed using our triple bottom line framework. I am calling together the delegates from Christchurch who attended the conference next week and will feed those observations and ideas in the Council processes over the next months.