

1. DEPUTATIONS BY APPOINTMENT

1.1 Leinster House

Gina Williamson and Mark Hadlow representing the Merivale Precinct Society addressed the Committee on the importance of this building to Merivale.

They tabled a report covering:

- Merivale now,
- Community response,
- Suggested use for Leinster House,
- Management,
- Investment.

1.2 Guide to Christchurch Architecture Book

Simon Pascoe, Architect, spoke of the project by a group of architects to produce a guide to Christchurch Architecture. It would cover the post World War II period providing examples of Christchurch's own style of buildings of that time.

The Chairman indicated the Committee's support for the project.

1.3 Proposed Memorial to Sergeant Henry James Nicholas VC

Tony Westwood representing the Christchurch branch of the Returned Services Association, and Stephen Glasson the Association's current artist in resident, addressed the Committee.

The Association was seeking a joint working party with the Council, as well as financial support in providing a memorial to Sergeant Henry James Nicholas VC.

An invitation was extended to the Chairman of the Committee, Councillor Anna Crighton to join the working party.
