

PROPOSED LEASES OF RESERVE THE SCOUT ASSOCIATION OF NEW ZEALAND

The Council has conditionally approved building extensions to the existing Scout Halls on Halswell and Marshland Domains. The Halswell Group need to cater for increased use of their facility while the Marshland Group require further room for equipment storage. To accommodate the proposed building extensions the present site occupations will need to be increased.

This is public notice that the Council intends to grant The Scout Association of New Zealand (as the parent body), new leases for the total site covered by the existing buildings and proposed extensions under Section 54 (1) (b) of the Reserves Act 1977, in respect to;

- 1) Halswell Scout Group, approximately 356 square metres being part Rural Section 40337, 301 Halswell Road.
- 2) Marshland Scout Group, approximately 240 square metres being part Reserve 4695, 420 Prestons Road.

The proposed leases will be for a maximum term (including renewals) of 20 years less one day.

Any person or organisation wishing to make a submission or lodge an objection to the proposed leases may do so in writing no later than 5.00pm on Wednesday 21 August 2002 to the:

Policy & Leasing Administrator, Parks and Waterways Unit, Christchurch City Council
P O Box 237, CHRISTCHURCH

Submitters should state if they wish to appear before a panel to be heard in support of their submission or objection.
