NOTICE OF LOCAL BILL - CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL
(ROBERT MCDUGALL GALLERY)
LAND VESTING BILL

Notice is given that the Christchurch City Council intends to introduce into the House of Representatives the above named Bill.

The objects of the Bill are:

1. To vest land on which is situated the Robert McDougall Art Gallery, in the Christchurch City Council free from all trusts, restrictions and reservations for the Council to hold as a local purpose reserve for the purpose of a gallery for the display of art and decorative arts and crafts and ancillary purposes.
2. To empower the Council to lease, licence or let all or any part of the land on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit for the purpose stated in paragraph 1.
3. To repeal section 54 of the Reserves and others Lands Disposal and Public Bodies Empowering Act 1925.

Copies of the Bill are available for public inspection without fee until Monday 16 December 2002 at:

- (a) 1st Floor Reception, Civic Offices, 163 Tuam Street; and
- (b) the Civil Office, District Court, 282 Durham Street, Christchurch.
