

5. ROYAL SOCIETY FUTURE DIRECTIONS

3PM-4PM

The Royal Society of New Zealand will present an overview of its national and local activities and its future plans as envisioned by Dr Jim Watson, President of the national organisation and Tony Mander, President of the Canterbury Branch. They wish to engage Councillors in a dialogue on the roles science and technology play in the physical and economic health of New Zealanders and Cantabrians.