1. APOLOGIES

2. CITY MALL SPECIAL CONSULTATIVE PROCEDURE

9.30AM-11.30AM

Presenters: Jane Parfitt, Ian Thomas & Peter Pearce

The aim of the seminar is to inform the Council on the options available for the City Mall special consultative procedure process, to present the legal implications and to get guidance on how best to proceed with the special consultative procedure in order to reflect the views of the Council.

3. HEALTHY CHRISTCHURCH 2007

1.30PM-2.30PM

Presenters: Evon Currie, Carole Evans & Selwyn Maister

The Christchurch City Council joined together with the Christchurch School of Medicine, Ministry of Health, Pegasus Health, Te Runanga O Ngai Tahu to form Healthy Christchurch which was launched in 2002. Since then Environment Canterbury has come on board as the seventh sponsoring organisation. This is a collaborative initiative focused on making Christchurch a healthy city. Following the report back to the champions in 2006 Healthy Christchurch was asked to present to Councillors on work in progress with a particular focus on how Council decisions have an impact on the community outcome of creating a healthy city.

4. POLICY REGISTER REVIEW

2.30PM-3.30PM

Presenters: Jane Cartwright, Rochelle Hardy

The purpose of this paper is to reiterate information provided to the Council regarding the CCC Policy Register ("Register"). Papers were circulated at the 17 October seminar and prior to the 7 November seminar (discussion was postponed at the latter meeting).

Following the initial seminar on 17 October 2006 Councillors Cox, Evans and Sheriff have worked with staff to identify a process for efficient review by Councillors of the existing register. Feedback was sought from all Councillors by December 2006.

5. FIRES BYLAW BRIEFING

3.30PM-4PM

Presenters: Terry Moody, Alan Bywater

Purpose of Seminar: The new Fires Bylaw was adopted by the Council in October last year. Both Councillors and staff have been contacted by some members of the public with concerns about aspects of the bylaw. In addition recent advice received from the Legal Services Unit needs to be considered. This seminar will recap the process and decisions made by the Council in creating the bylaw, the issues that have subsequently arisen and consider the appropriate course of action.
