5. E-COMMUNICATION WORKING PARTY

The Board considered a report detailing meetings of the e-Communication Working Party, and its advice was sought regarding a change in direction and purpose of same.

It was resolved:

1. That the Working Party be charged with acquiring information about what computer training is being provided in the community, and issues arising from that.

2. That the Working Party become a committee of the Board.