

4. REPORTING FOR THE PERIOD ENDED 30 JUNE 2004

The Committee received a report outlining a new approach to year end reporting.

The Committee considered it would be helpful to explain why targets were not met, or indicators not surveyed - not simply "not surveyed" or the actual percentage. This would make the reporting more meaningful to the Committee.