

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of SEVEN (7) Members of the Canterbury District Health Board

Angelika FRANK-ALEXANDER

Independent Citizens

Angelika Frank-Alexander is fed up with blunders!

“Enough is enough! It’s time the Public Health Dollar is spent on patients and not bureaucracy.”

Angelika stands for accountability in governance, in preventative measures to keep the population healthy and timely and efficient intervention to reduce waiting lists.

“Let’s fix the problem and not be the ambulance at the bottom of the cliff. Our people deserve better. It’s our money, give us control!”

As longstanding business owner and manager, Angelika has the expertise needed to lead the change; having a young family she knows the problems. Her extensive community involvement ensures Angelika listens and advocates for the people and make their voices heard.

Angelika’s legal, business, and community experience makes her ideally qualified to make the Health System honest and transparent. She brings strong and straightforward leadership focussed on finding solutions. Make Angelika number one!

Frankly, you need A. Frank-Alexander!
