

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of TWO (2) Councillors for the Riccarton/Wigram Ward

Helen BROUGHTON

Independent Citizens

A current councillor, Helen works for improved urban and traffic planning in a ward under pressure from development. She promotes a quality residential lifestyle and protection of the natural environment of the Port Hills.

A forceful advocate for her community's views at Council, Helen fought to lower rate increases, save Sockburn pool and suburban libraries; she successfully prevented the potential sale of council assets{ Red Bus / City Care}.

Helen promotes the retention of council assets, stronger financial management to restrain rate increases, and radically improved Council decision making and democracy .

Former Trustee of Riccarton House and Bush, Helen is serious about preserving our heritage, yet cares strongly about people; a human resource manager, trained teacher and counsellor; graduating MA (Hons), English , University of Canterbury.

Community Board member for eleven years and resident for thirty , her two children growing up here; Helen delivers results for our community.
