

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of SEVEN (7) Members of the Canterbury District Health Board

Matea GILLIES

Independent

By invitation Dr Matea Gillies has served on the CDHB for the last 10 months as an observer for Ngai Tahu/Maori. He is standing as an Independent. Matea believes that improved access to health care through a well supported Primary care sector can provide innovative solutions to remove the increasing pressure on Hospitals. He sees a real need to promote better relationships in order to have true collaboration between health providers and management in hospitals. He has worked as a GP for 30yrs and currently works in private practice and the Correction Service. He has served on the Partnership Health Primary Health Organisation (PHO) covering Christchurch and Selwyn for three years. Matea also sits on the Maori Advisory Board for Pegasus Health.

Matea offers a combination of skills, experiences and a balanced community perspective to assist the Board meet the challenges of improving health outcomes with the limited health dollar.
