

CHRISTCHURCH CITY COUNCIL

Election of SEVEN (7) Members of the Canterbury District Health Board

Neville BENNETT

Independent Citizens

Dr. Neville Bennett J.P. will do a terrific job on the Health Board. He is a retired lecturer with a national reputation for incisive analysis and compassion for the ordinary person. It is a time for new faces. He demands more community input. An expert in governance, he's important in the Royal Foundation of the Blind, being a Director and Chair of the Audit and Budget Committee. He is a Trustee of University

Superannuation, NBR writer, and Deputy Chair of Riccarton/Wigram Community Board. He knows how to involve local people.

Neville has four children. His wife, Sandy Robertson is Chair, Kirkwood School. Neville believes in efficiency, but was also Canterbury Academic Representative, Association University Staff.

Although good hospitals are not negotiable, Neville also wants to improve primary , preventive health care, and rural services. We deserve better service. Vote Neville for action.
