I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.

I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 1 June and Friday 11 June 2004.

I wish to support the proposed Annual Grant for Christ Church Cathedral.

In January 1995 my husband, John Stringleman, ex City Librarian, died. He was not a member of any Church, but had a very wide circle of friends, colleagues and supporters in the city. The Dean of the Cathedral graciously allowed me to hold his funeral service in the Cathedral, and it was a very large attendance.

When the Columbarium next to the Cathedral was built, I was very happy to pay the necessary sum for his name to be recorded on it. Since then John's grandchildren and friends have stated how very fitting it is to have him commemorated in the heart of the city, which he served all his working life.

This scenario will apply to others in civic life, and the Cathedral will be available to them - finances permitting.

I, myself, do worship at the Cathedral and am one of the 350 volunteers who help to keep it open. But I did not demand the support I was given over my husband's death. It was freely given and is available to all citizens.

I do hope this can continue.

Thank you.

B. H. Stingleman.
