- I do NOT wish to speak at the hearings
 I wish to speak about the main points in my submission at the hearings from 1-11 June.

I think its a mistake to allow Brothels in the "Columbo St area". Teenagers congregate in the area & often are high or drunk. Lets not make another problem for our youth. Surely if we want to encourage shopping etc. in the "fisher city" we should keep it clean - not have prostitutes in doorways. Lets have a city centre to be proud of & not just the square area.

Ratepayers having to pay for too many ~~things~~ things such as the new water area & new Council offices should be reconsidered.

It seems to me that sewage is urgent & we should not waste water by putting it out to sea.

High rate increases are a problem for most of us.
