- I do NOT wish to make a personal submission at the hearing, and ask that this written submission be considered.
- I wish to talk to the main points in my written submission at the hearings to be held between Tuesday 1 June and Friday 11 June 2004.

I am a parent of a Burnside Primary Student, that does road patrol three times a week. I have been doing this for the last three years and have seen some "close calls" in regards to the traffic on Ilam Road. This road gets extremely busy during school hours with traffic going both direction because of where the school is situated, traffic coming from the northern part of Ilam Rd comes around the bend very quickly. A 40 kmph safety speed zone would make the drivers more aware that they are approaching a "School Zone" and that there are children about. Last year in the
