1 May 2006

The Teachers and Management Committee of Hoon Hay Community Crèche would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the ongoing support of the Christchurch City Council. Without the support that we receive from the council we would not be able to provide the quality care and education to the families that currently attend our centre.

We are situated in a low socio-economic area and endeavour to keep our fees as low as possible so that our service is as accessible to as many families as possible. We currently charge $3.50 per hour and to the best of my knowledge this amount is one of the lowest charges for an Early Childhood centre in Christchurch.

We are strongly supported by the families of our local community and currently have a full roll and a waiting list.

We sincerely hope that the council will continue to support the Early Childhood centres of Christchurch.

Yours sincerely

Jennie Potter
Supervisor
