Please save our libraries! Do you know how Alan Duff has worked to raise money so that every N.Z. home could have at least one book? You must not deprive children of the opportunity of going to the library, gaining a love for books and so gaining much pleasure and a stepping stone to read. Then there are older people of all ages dependent on libraries.

for reading material.

You will know, too, that many of our prison inmates are unable to read. Please help them, too, and try to help others from being in that position.

As for myself, I depend on Bishopdale Library, and appreciate the excellent service given by a very friendly, co-operative staff. Because it is situated in close proximity to the shopping area, for one taxi fare, as I am no longer a driver, I can change my books, and attend to business necessary.

Re-consider this decision, and keep the libraries open.
