Our family (mother, father and two girls (6 + 3)) are absolutely opposed to the proposed closure of the Redwood Library.

(1) We see this move as a deliberate act of vandalism against our community. The Redwood community has a fabulous community spirit and the library is a key to that. People of all ages use this facility for obtaining information and meeting with people.

(2) The location of a library in Redwood means that people of all ages + levels of mobility have excellent access to reading materials. As a society we lament the falling ^{levels of} rates of literacy in New Zealand. Removing this library will make this problem worse.

You may add more pages if you wish. Thank you for your submission.
