With regards to the proposed closure of the Redwood library, this would be a huge loss to our community if it were to close. My family use the library at least twice a week, we walk from home and it is so handy to kindy and the Redwood School. My children love having a look on the computers and the play area is great for my preschoolers. Because it is a small library it is not too large and overwhelming for children to visit and browse. The staff are always so helpful and friendly. Please
