Questions

HALSWELL LIBRARY.

1 Do you have any comments on the major projects in our draft Community Plan? page number 74

That our present library "sits on the edge of the new community" suggests the writer has little knowledge of our Halswell community. Our library sits in the centre of both the "old" and the "new" Halswell.

That it is too small, in spite of undergoing extensions in 1995 suggest a lack of foresight and long term planning by Council 10 years ago

2 Do you have any comments on groups of activities (the activities and services that Council provides)? page number

That the present library has "little street appeal" and "having been overshadowed by the recent development" (Harcourts) shows a continuing lack of foresight and planning two or three years ago when I believe Council rejected as too expensive the land on which Harcourts (and adjoining houses?) now sit.

That Halswell needs a larger library, goes without saying. However, that a "suggested parcel of land that will centralise the library" is I believe in the eastern end of William Britton Avenue. If correct this shows that

3 Do you have any other comments or suggestions you want to make? page number

Council retains its lack of foresight and planning. Future residents will continue to be saddened by the decisions and actions of Council who <sup>to refuse</sup> continue to listen and act on the wisdom and wishes of the residents whom Council is elected and employed to serve.

That there are still 2 parcels of comparatively undeveloped land, strategically located in a central high profile site, seems to have
