To The Ch. Ch. City Council

I am writing to you to ask that you re-consider any ideas you may have with regards to the closing of the Spreydon Library. My wife suffers from loss of sight and is a member of the Blind Foundation. One of the many benefits available from the library for her and others is the use of the talking books. Being part of a busy shopping complex the library is an essential part of the area and any closure would be a severe loss to young and old.

Please consider how you vote as any vote against the retention of the library could also be a vote against your continuation as a member of the Christchurch City Council and vote in accordance with the wishes of the public of Ch. Ch.
Please - Save our Libraries.

We remain

Yours hopefully
J. M. L. A. Hendry
