Louis Wetlands A rare & famous attraction for us & overseas visitors; menaced by recent housing development & ugly high-rise extension of Kate Shepherd Village. This is Swamp-land! The jolly bull-rushes will hide the man-made canal but residents will be dumping lawn & garden rubbish, a threat to wildlife who have been decimated by the slash & burn of lonely trees on Trots Rd, & the once so pretty golf course, Asect. I am well aware of recent storm-damage but the graceful weeping willows. I've played there for years & a fall has only rarely happened! Same applies to the shelter aspect & so many wide-open gaps created by the pruning, threatens the remaining young trees - some are lovely specimens.

River Bank; I regret the ever-widening encroachment of the Roashmere Rd side of Heathcote River Bank from Barrington Bridge to Princess Margaret Hosp. The car-park is now against the road-side-row of lonely trees in places. The walk-way on the river is still in tact but many families & young children & old folk from Roashmere View Village use this area, you have provided bridges for them, so please consider them.

Rubbish collection: I should recently when my dear sister died at George Manning Hosp, I would take her out in a W/shaw, along Sydenham Street. Because I had to negotiate her around T Wheelie Bin always left on the pavement, I would be vehemently opposed to the idea of each household having 3 Bins each! As I couldn't leave the W/shaw to move the Bin, I had to push over the grass. It was a real menace.

Thankyou for this opportunity to express my views & concerns.
