2. community service awards

Each year the Board seeks to recognise outstanding voluntary service to the community from groups and individuals. This year 14 persons and four groups were nominated. The nominations are, at this time, confidential; with this committee being given “power to act” the (approved) nominees have been advised of the committee’s selection decision and they have been asked to confirm their acceptance of an award.

A presentation function is to be held on Thursday 19 August 1999.

The committee decisions are included into the public excluded section of the order paper.
