

3. INTRODUCTION OF STAFF

At the Chairman's request arrangements will be made over the next few months for staff members, who in the normal course of their duties have little or no contact with elected members, to brief the Committee on their role and responsibilities.

This month, Richard Doyle, the Parks Education Officer, will speak to the Committee on the duties of an education officer.