Corporate Plan Output: Board Member Support

Board members will recall that the Board made a submission on the Draft Out of School Programme Policy. Derek McCullough and Linda Rutland prepared this submission on behalf of the Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board. The need for an Out of School Programme Policy was identified by Councillors, Community Board members, Council staff and community groups involved in out of school programmes. After wide consultation, feedback on the draft policy, including this submission from the Hagley/Ferrymead Community Board has been collated and included in the background report, which is the subject of the clause which follows. The submission is attached.

Recommendation: That the information be received.
