This report should be read in conjunction with clause 6 in the main agenda.

The purpose of this report is to submit the recommendations from the Urban Development Strategy Elected Members Working Party of 11 March and the final version of the Metropolitan Urban Development Strategy (attached).

- Recommendation:
1. That the Council adopt the Urban Development Strategy (UDS) and Terms of Reference (dated 12 March 2004) as recommended by the UDS Working Party of elected members from Christchurch City, Waimakariri, Selwyn, Banks Peninsula Councils and Environment Canterbury.
  2. That the Council confirm its appointed members as Councillors Buck, O'Rourke, Wells and Williams, and add an alternate member to the UDS Elected Members Team.
  3. That the Council pay appointed elected members a meeting allowance for UDS meeting attendance.
  4. That the Council set aside appropriate funding as outlined in the UDS budget, noting that no new funds are anticipated to meet this budget requirement but it is anticipated there will be a likely need to carry forward funds from 2003-04 to 2004-05.

Chair's Recommendation: That the above recommendation be adopted.
