APOI OFR PROGRAMM FOR S BMISSI 3 To decide on a programme for inviting submissions for further consultation should be extended to include all affected restaurant/bar operators, including those along the Oxford Terrace Strip. It will be recalled that the following persons made submissions at the 15 September 2005 Council meeting:

Mr Antony Gough (Hereford Holdings Ltd)

Mr Clive Weston (Coyotes)

Mr Peter Morrison (Branch President, Canterbury Hospitality Association)

Mr Gough has also advised that he would like Mr Ian McKenzie to be included in any further discussions, as the owner of some of the affected Oxford Terrace properties.

4. FURTHER STAFF REPORT

Councillor Cox has also indicated that he wishes to seek a further staff report on some of the other associated issues discussed at the Council meeting, including:

- Outstanding rentals, and steps taken to date to effect recovery
- Definition of extent of Oxford Terrace Strip

5. FUTURE MEETING DATES

To set times/dates for future hearings/meetings by the Subcommittee.
