

10. UNITED NATIONS YEAR FOR CULTURAL HERITAGE

The Committee considered a report from Warren Brixton, Committee Secretary detailed information received from the New Zealand National Commission for UNESCO with 4 December 2002 having been declared the day for cultural heritage.

The Committee decided that the information from the New Zealand National Commission for UNESCO be re-examined in 2003 as to the activities of a cultural heritage nature the Council might wish to participate in.